

Phone tapping "admissible" in Zurgena case, court says
Recorded telephone calls to be used as evidence against mayor and 24 other defendants

By Richard Torné, Costa Almeria News, 27th November 2009

SPAIN's supreme court last week upheld a decision to allow phone tapping to be used as evidence in an ongoing corruption investigation against Zurgena's mayor and 24 other defendants.

More...