19 homes facing demoliton in El Fas, Cantoria

4th July 2008, Richard Torne, Costa Almeria News

Around 19 properties, all lacking building licences and first habitation certificates, are facing bulldozers in the El Fas district of Cantoria.

Although the case has been going through the courts for almost two years residents only got to hear of the news late last month when they were served with a summons to attend the Justice of the Peace and were asked if they wanted to take part in proceedings against the accused.

This outcome is the result of proceedings initiated in 2005 by SEPRONA under the direction of the Fiscalia (public procecutor). In an annex to his annual report (2005), the Fiscalia published sample photographs of developments subject to legal proceedings. El Fas is one of those listed. There are 4 other photographs:

- A photograph of the "Almanzora Country Club", Cuevas del Almanzora.
- A photograph of an unnamed development near Los Guillenes, Albox.
- A photograph of an unnamed development near Media Legua, Cantoria.
- A photograph of an unnamed development near La Aljambra, Albox.
