

Sorbas mayor accused of granting illegal building licences

By Matthew Pritchard, Costa Almeria News, 11th September 2009

THE mayor of Sorbas could face six months in prison due to his involvement in selling illegal homes in the municipality.

Besides the prison sentence, the public prosecutor has also asked that José Fernández Amador, of the right wing Partido Popular (PP) party, be forced to step down as mayor, be banned from employment in public administration for seven years and be given a fine of 12 euros a day for 14 months.

Read More in the Costa Almeria News....